STD Microbiology Awareness Workshop

The Transfer Student Center is pleased to welcome guest speaker Dr. John Scott Wilbur, Ph.D School of Animal and Comparative Biomedical Sciences, who will be presenting a 50 minute workshop focusing on the microbiological aspects of STD’s. As a Research I Institution, the University of Arizona is furthering scientific research in all walks of life. Dr. Wilbur will discuss how microscopic organisms cause STD’s but always ways in which students can reduce how they are spread.

The workshop will be help in the Transfer Student Center, located in the Student Union Memorial Center, Room 402 on April 7th, 2015 from 3:00pm to 4:00pm.

Writing Skills Improvement Program

The Writing Skills Improvement Program (WSIP) will have tutors available at the Transfer Student Center during April of 2015. Both graduate and undergraduate students are welcome to stop by the Transfer Student Center (SUMC, Room 402) to seek help from tutors that specialize in all disciplines. All various writing projects are welcome and students will be assisted by the WSIP tutors on a walk-in basis. If interested in acquiring more information on the WSIP program, please visit www.wsip.arizona.edu for more details.

The following are the specific dates tutors will be available at the Transfer Student Center:

Tutor: Dr. Leslie Dupont
Wednesday, April 1
2:00pm-3:00pm

Tutor: Andrea Hernandez Holm, MA, MS
Wednesday, April 8
2:00pm-3:00pm
Movie Night! Extravaganza

Last month, the Transfer Student Center held a social movie night gathering for Wildcats that hit off with a great success! We are happy to announce that the Transfer Student Center will hold another movie night, where pizza, popcorn, and refreshments will be served for FREE.

The movie will be TBA until the week prior, where the TSC will hold a poll to hear what movie you want to see! So bring a friend and join in the relaxation from your studies!

The Movie Night will be held on the 4th floor of the Student Union Memorial Center, Room 402 in the Transfer Student Center on April 16th from 5:30pm to 7:30pm in the evening.

Protestant Print Propaganda: Early Books Lecture Series

The University of Arizona's Library will be featuring a special Early Books Lecture Series XII on Thursday April 16th from 6:00pm to 7:30pm at the Special Collections in the Main Library. Featuring guest speaker Professor Albrecht Classen of the Department of German studies, he will go how the protestant print propaganda was influenced by the making and formulation of early books. An RSVP is requested by April 13th for those that are interested, so please visit the following address in order to do so: https://app.e2ma.net/app2/audience/signup/1783223/1365469/?v=a

Eller Service Honorary Business Suit Drive

The Eller College of Management will be holding its Eller Service Honorary Business Suit Drive Monday, April 27 at 12:00am until Saturday, May 2 at 12:00am. Hosted by the Eller Professional Development Center, Students, professors, and other participants can drop off old business suits in the collection boxes that will be placed inside the Atrium at Eller College. Suits that are donated will be given to low income students at the San Miguel High School located here within Tucson.

Spring Plant Sale

The Colleges of Arts, Letters, and Sciences is featuring a Spring Plant Sale on Saturday April 11, 2015 from 8:00am to 11:00am. Come early for the best selection at the Pima County Master Gardener Spring Plant Sale, where all plants are grown by Master Gardeners right here in Tucson.

There will be figs, blackberries, pomegranates, many cacti and succulents, landscaping shrubbery, vines, and more! This event will be FREE and open to the public. The sale itself will take place in the Pima County Cooperative Extension's Demonstration Gardens, which is located at 4210 N. Campbell Avenue, Tucson Arizona. In case you have any specific questions or inquiries contact Francine Correll at: fcorrell@email.arizona.edu
Breakfast Social for Morning Fuel!

It’s hard to believe it, but the end of the Spring 2015 semester is already nearing to a close. That means that Finals Week is fast approaching and, for many Wildcats, that means a many students will be forgetting to start off their mornings with the proper nourishing breakfast their bodies need. Join the Transfer Student Center staff for a morning fuel breakfast social that will be held on April 23 from 9:00am to 11:00am in the Student Union Memorial Center on the 4th Floor. Don’t go ignoring your bodies needs prior to those important examinations!

Anxiety and De-Stressing Workshop

Life can be overwhelming; from that anxiety about whether or not you did well on that job interview, financial strain causing stress, or even worries about the relationships you have with the individuals in your life.

On April 28, a certified psychologist from CAPS will be a guest speaker at the Transfer Student Center on the 4th Floor of the Student Union Memorial Center in order to help students face their fears, anxieties, and other worries that may be dragging them down. Help is always there for those who need it, and it is never too late to begin a fresh start. The CAPS anxiety and de-stressing workshop will start promptly at 3:00pm, for those interested.

Preparing for Finals

How do you know what to study for exactly when professors give so much material and so little time?

The Think Tank will be holding their “Preparing for finals” workshop in the Center on Thursday, April 30th, come hear about optimal techniques and ways to handle test anxiety. Mentally preparing yourself for finals exams in May. The workshop begins at 3:00pm until 4:00pm.
The UA Transfer Student Center, works with the Office of Admissions to help your transition to UA go as smoothly as possible. The Transfer Student Center is a welcoming place for new transfer students seeking information about the enrollment process, course registration, campus resources, or how to navigate campus systems. Students serving as Transfer Outreach Facilitators assist Center staff in answering questions and helping transfers make connections around the campus.

The Transfer Student Center is located on the 4th floor of the Student Union Memorial Center, suite 402. The Center is open Monday-Friday from 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. You can get more information about their services by visiting http://transfer.arizona.edu or contacting them at 520-626-6463 or uofatransfer@gmail.com.

Meet the Artist of "Marking Time to a Changing Climate"

There will be a public tour featuring artists who are marking the changes in climate at the Tree Ring Laboratory Wednesday, April 8, 2015 from 12:00pm to 1:00pm in the Bryant Bannister Building 110. There will be a public tour of the artwork on exhibit on the 3rd and 4th floors beginning at 11:30 prior to the talks from the speakers. For more information, please contact Ellen McMahon at emcmahon@email.arizona.edu or go to the Laboratory for Tree Ring Research Website.

College of Fine Arts: Visiting Arts and Art Exhibits on Campus

April showers bring not only May flowers, but visiting production artist to the UA campus! Tamika Sonja Lawrence will be holding a Question and Answer Session from 12:00pm-12:30pm and a Musical Theatre Workshop from 1:00pm-3:00pm at the School of Theatre and Film & Television on Friday, April 3, 2015. She requests that students interested to prepare 32 bars of a non-musical theatre song (true pop/rock/alternative) they would use for a musical theatre audition for a type of genre they would go in for. For more details, please visit the College of Fine Arts at http://www.cfa.arizona.edu/.

This month there are going to be plenty of art exhibits from the U of A’s amazing students; check out their website for more information on where to catch local art exhibits here on campus!