WHAT'S GOING ON THIS MONTH

- Homecoming
  Nov 8th—All day
- Reid Park Zoo trip
  Nov 22nd—10:00am
- Easy Budget,
  Healthy Eating
  Nov 10th—2:00pm

REID PARK ZOO

The Transfer Student Center will be going to Reid Park Zoo on Saturday the 22nd for a group trip to meet each other and see a great zoo!

Reid Park Zoo houses over 500 animals that the center will be seeing. Just this year they had a female elephant calf born in the zoo! This is the first time event in the state of Arizona.

Be sure to RSVP in advance because we only have room for 30 students in our group! Transportation will be provided, students need to meet at the roundabout at 9:45am, on Saturday.

HOMECOMING

The Transfer Student Center will be pitching at tent on the UA Mall. Join us for games, trivia, and prizes! We’ll be there all day.

EAT LIKE THIS WORKSHOP

UA Campus Health will be coming to the Transfer Student Center to talk about how to eat healthy on a low budget that is normally used to buy things like chips and ramen.

On November 10th, from 2:00-3:00pm, come join us on how you can eat better without having to spending insane amounts of money at the grocery store.

TRANSFER THANKSGIVING

Tuesday, Nov 25th we’re going to be having Thanksgiving dinner for all transfers who won’t be able to be with their family for Thanksgiving or those who want to share it with their fellow transfers! We’ll be making a whole turkey! Join our potluck!

OTHER EVENTS THIS MONTH

Artist Talk—Stanley Greenberg

The University of Arizona will be hosting Stanley Greenberg on Wednesday Nov, 19th at 5:30pm to talk about his work. He will be speaking in the Optical Sciences bldg 410.

BFA senior exhibition

The UA seniors will be having their senior exhibition before they graduate! Their show will be in the Lionel Rombach Gallery from Nov 5–Dec 10. But their opening reception will be on Nov 6th from 3:00-5:00pm. Reception = food.

UA Cares Event

Nov 3 from 11:00am-10:00pm, Pizza studio will be donating 20% to the United Way of Tucson and Southern Arizona’s Education Impact Fund. Join us on 1031 N. Park Ave.